À propos du Fonds de bourses d'études

- ◆ Ce Fonds de bourses commémoratives a été créé en 1990 par le conseil d'administration de Pommes de terre Nouveau-Brunswick en mémoire de Maurice Daigle.
- ◆ Maurice Daigle était un producteur de pommes de terre qui a perdu la vie à la suite d'un accident à l'âge de 36 ans. Maurice, avec ses deux frères, cultivait dans la région de Saint-André sur une ferme mixte (pommes de terre, céréales, et bovins de boucherie). En plus de l'agriculture, Maurice a été très impliqué dans l'avancement de l'agriculture et a été membre de conseil d'administration de Pommes de terre Nouveau-Brunswick pendant plusieurs années.
- ◆ Le Fonds de bourses d'études commémoratives Maurice Daigle est remis chaque année à des étudiants parentés des agriculteurs de pommes de terre admissibles dans la province du Nouveau-Brunswick qui poursuivent leurs études postsecondaires en agriculture ou dans un domaine d'études connexe à l'agriculture.
