

GINI BOURQUE MEMORIAL BURSARY

Bursary for Community Service – 2026

The Gini Bourque Memorial Bursary honours the life of Georgina (GiniB) Bourque, a proud Monctonian and Harrison Trimble Trojan known for her compassion, courage, and commitment to community. Even while undergoing treatment for metastatic breast cancer, Gini dedicated herself to supporting cancer care at The Moncton Hospital and inspired local fundraising efforts and community initiatives. She passed away in 2022, and this bursary continues her legacy of kindness and service.

One bursary valued at 1000 dollars will be awarded in 2026.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- Be graduating from Grade 12 in 2026.
- Attend a high school in the Greater Moncton region.
- Demonstrate compassion, community involvement, or meaningful support for others.

Community involvement may include traditional volunteering, family responsibilities, cultural involvement, school leadership, or other meaningful ways of helping others.

Application Requirements

1. Personal Information

Applicants must provide:

- Full name
- Mailing address
- Telephone number
- Planned area of study
